

May 22, 2007
Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Corporation

NTT Awarded Medal from Royal Government of Cambodia

Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Corporation (NTT; Head Office: Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo; President and CEO: Norio Wada) is pleased to announce that it was recently awarded the Medal of Friendship (see note below) from the Royal Government of Cambodia.

Since 1960, NTT (and its predecessor, Nippon Telegraph and Telephone Public Corporation) has sent its technical experts to Cambodia to help the government's efforts to reconstruct the domestic telecommunications network. NTT was awarded the Medal of Friendship in recognition of its outstanding contributions in this area.

Note:

The Medal of Friendship is one of the highest-ranking medals given to civilians to express the appreciation of Cambodia for deepening mutual friendship.

For further information, please contact:
Global Business Strategy Office
Phone: 81-3-5205-5191

NTT NEWS RELEASE

Copyright (c) 2007 Nippon telegraph and telephone corporation